Implementing Change

- One of the "Promising" method is the Transformative Teaching And Learning to transform the student from local to universal future employee .

Implementing Change

- not applicable immediately because of the limited possibilities of material in addition to the ministry restrictions and many other hurdles or challenges as:
- 1 The ministry laws 2 shortage of time 3 The possibility of the college and the administration regime.

Trans. Learning applicable in Iraq as it reduce the gap in btw. professors and students and offer fruitful educational delivery system

addressed those in low levels couple of sessions for professors and students could not make that impact in this time

Impact

- A Workshop attracted more than 60 lecturers from 7 different governorates' universities:
  1. Baghdad uni.
  2. Al Nahrain uni.
  3. Babylon uni.
  4. Kuffa Uni.
  5. Karbala Uni.
  6. Wasit uni.
  7. The Qar Uni.
- Through the D2L participants spend interactive 2-day workshop in Al Nahrain University. Lectures were led by Prof. Jeff King from the University of Central Oklahoma and me.
- We practiced the Problem Based Learning and for feedback I conducted a survey: more than 2/3 of the participant were attracted to the new methodology and promise to make new changes in his /her way of teaching and learning
- These numbers mean to me 2/3 of their students would be global not local.

Major Takeaway

- Develop Education In Iraq
  - D2L : Desire To Learn using internet and PB: Problem base case of study both are ways to TL: Transformative Learning
  - Accelerated Learning for students by enhancing the educational atmosphere
  - Providing opportunities for creativity and development
  - Make an hard base for practice and scientific researches.
- follow the topic base syllabus not the year based to graduation

- Open a channel with the ministry to adapted those reforms
- Invite international expert to lecturing new teaching and learning methodology and ways to apply it
- More training courses held by the trained faculty members
- And keep session to updating global teaching method to our institutes and raise up the education in Iraq
- My colleagues and I who trained well in this methodology we are fully available to train other universities faculty members in all over Iraq
